HUERTA SENDS ULTIMATUM

(By Association Press Cable.)
CITY OF MEXICO, August 18.—President Wilson has until 12 o'clock tonight to recognize the government of Mexico under Provisional President Huerta or assume the consequences. Official announcement of this stand on the part of Huerta was given out from the palace late last night, following negotiations which have been attempted by Special Envoy Lind for the past week. The ultimatum is direct and unequivocal. There is little doubt here but the announcement means the severing at once of all relations between Mexico and the United States. Representatives of the American government now here, in the event of the failure of the United States to accord recognition, will probably be asked to leave. It is admitted that the situation has now reached a crisis that will be decisively determined within the next few hours.

Wilson Holds Night Session.
A night session of the cabinet was called. President Wilson, Secretary of State Bryan and the members assembled soon after receipt of news from the City of Mexico that Huerta had hurled his warlike defiance at the United States. Though no ultimatum has been given out as to the action President Wilson will take, it is believed that the administration now realizes that hopes of bringing peace to Mexico are at an end. The result of the cabinet conference will probably not be given out tonight. It is expected that the president will send a message to the senate tomorrow morning and before night a decisive reply will be made to the ultimatum of the Mexican provisional president.

Cavalry along the Texas border is in readiness, troops at Fort Rosecrans, near San Diego, are known to have been in readiness for duty for days, while United States ships, well provisioned, supplied with men and ammunition have been in the Gulf of California and off Vera Cruz for days.

There are those in Washington who still maintain that Huerta, not being recognized as the president of Mexico cannot be treated as acting for an established government by this country, his defiance tonight being simply that of an outlaw driven to cover and attempting to save himself from capture and annihilation.

Contrary to reports it is not believed the entire country will unite against the United States.

Harry K. Thaw, who escaped early yesterday from the Mattheawan State Hospital, eluded the police this morning, after staying all night at the Lenox Hotel at Pittsfield, Mass. He escaped in an auto at daylight, the police say, after he had been positively identified. The police are in pursuit.

Asylum Guard Arrested.
Harold Barnum Gale, at Mattheawan insane asylum, was arrested this afternoon, and charged with bribery and negligence in connection with the escape of Thaw. Warrants were also issued for the arrest of Thomas Flood, Eugene Duffy, Richard O'Keefe, Roger Cromanson and Richard Butler, who are alleged to have aided Thaw to escape.

No Protection.
Attorney General Swift, of Massachusetts, is of the opinion that Harry K. Thaw's case is not one in which he can be returned to New York by extradition.

"We can handle the case practically, though," said Swift. "Probably we can take him to the State line and unofficially hand him over to the New York authorities."

Rich Murderer Safe.
New York newspapers today are unanimous in the charge that a rich murderer is safe in this State. Several of them ask who Thaw will kill next. His wife, Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, is under heavy guard, and admits her terror.

The Diggs-Cammetti white slave case was discussed on the floor of the senate today, when Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, declared that easy divorce laws enabled Diggs and Cammetti to secure their victims.

Tillman mentioned the case while speaking against woman suffrage and the present divorce laws.

"If the Diggs-Cammetti affair had occurred in the South," declared Tillman, "the fathers of the two girls would have killed the two wife deserters like dogs and would have been acquitted. It appears to me that the relation between divorce and suffrage is one of mutual acceleration."

"I am aware that the suffrage movement is too strong for an old fogey like me to expect to stop it, except perhaps in the South or in New England, where conservatism is strong, but I believe woman's goodness and usefulness varies inversely with her participation in politics. Women will improve politics, but ultimately politics will destroy them."

Tillman quoted statistics showing the proportionate growth of divorce and suffrage. Alluding to a statement by Jane Addams of Chicago, that women will remember the attitude of present-day politicians in the suffrage war, Tillman said:

"I fear statesmen may be weak facing this threat, but only cowards yield their conviction under pressure."

Mrs. E. C. Ward and Miss Lillian R. Ward, wife and daughter of General Manager E. C. Ward, of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company, lost their lives in the wreck of the State of California. Besides its crew the vessel carried fifty-four passengers, mostly tourists making the round trip.

The loss of life in connection with the wrecked steamer turns out to be much greater than first reported. Twenty-five passengers are known to have perished, and seven members of the crew also lost their lives. Ten others who reached Juneau are said to be in a dying condition.

Many of the passengers were in their staterooms at the time. The ill-fated vessel left Seattle last Wednesday for Skagway. It was valued at $400,000.

Mrs. Mary Lake and her four children, Horace, aged 17, Walter, aged 8, Stella, aged 18, and Dorothy, aged 14, all nude, were found dead in their Brooklyn home today, with their bodies horribly mangled. The father and husband, Henry Lake, a restaurant chef, was found dying beside the others. The police say Lake killed his family and then fatally wounded himself.

Intimation from the state department today is that the administration will not oppose the reported plan of Japan to pass a law prohibiting Americans owning land in that Empire. It is understood that the President believes that it would be unfair to protest against Japan's law, it being simply an imitation of the Webb Anti-Alien Law of California.

The entire Lake region continued to swelter in one of the hottest waves of the season today. Many heat prostrations occurred. Reports from Cleveland say that three are dead. Five are dead in Grand Rapids, and six in Detroit. The weather bureau holds out no hope for immediate relief.

Five thousand persons were killed, including 3500 civilians, in the recent rioting in Canton, according to advisers received in London today. It was as received here today. It was also declared the Canton mint had been looted of one million dollars.
